Not music. Medicine.

For this special edition of our retreat, we're honored to welcome Ancient Journey, with Xavi and Sílvia — a musical duo whose presence goes far beyond performance. They don't just play music. They channel frequencies that cleanse, awaken, and guide. This is not a concert. It's a sonic ceremony, woven into the very fabric of this transformational journey. They're not here to entertain. They're here to hold a healing field — through voice, stillness, and sacred intention. Their presence is a gift.

Nourishment as ceremony

Food is an essential part of this journey — not only to nourish the body, but to support clarity, sensitivity, and integration. Throughout the retreat, you will be guided by a gourmet chef dedicated to high-quality vegan cuisine, present with us during the entire experience.

Each meal is prepared with care, precision, and intention, using fresh, vibrant ingredients that respect the body and the process you are moving through. This is not about restriction or excess. It is about conscious nourishment — food that grounds, supports, and gently sustains you as the journey unfolds.

Retreat home

Our retreats are held in beautifully restored Catalan masias, nestled in tranquil countryside settings about one hour from Barcelona. Each location is chosen for its harmony with nature — spaces that invite stillness, comfort, and inner connection. Surrounded by silence and natural beauty, the environment supports deep rest, integration, and the sacred work experienced throughout the retreat.

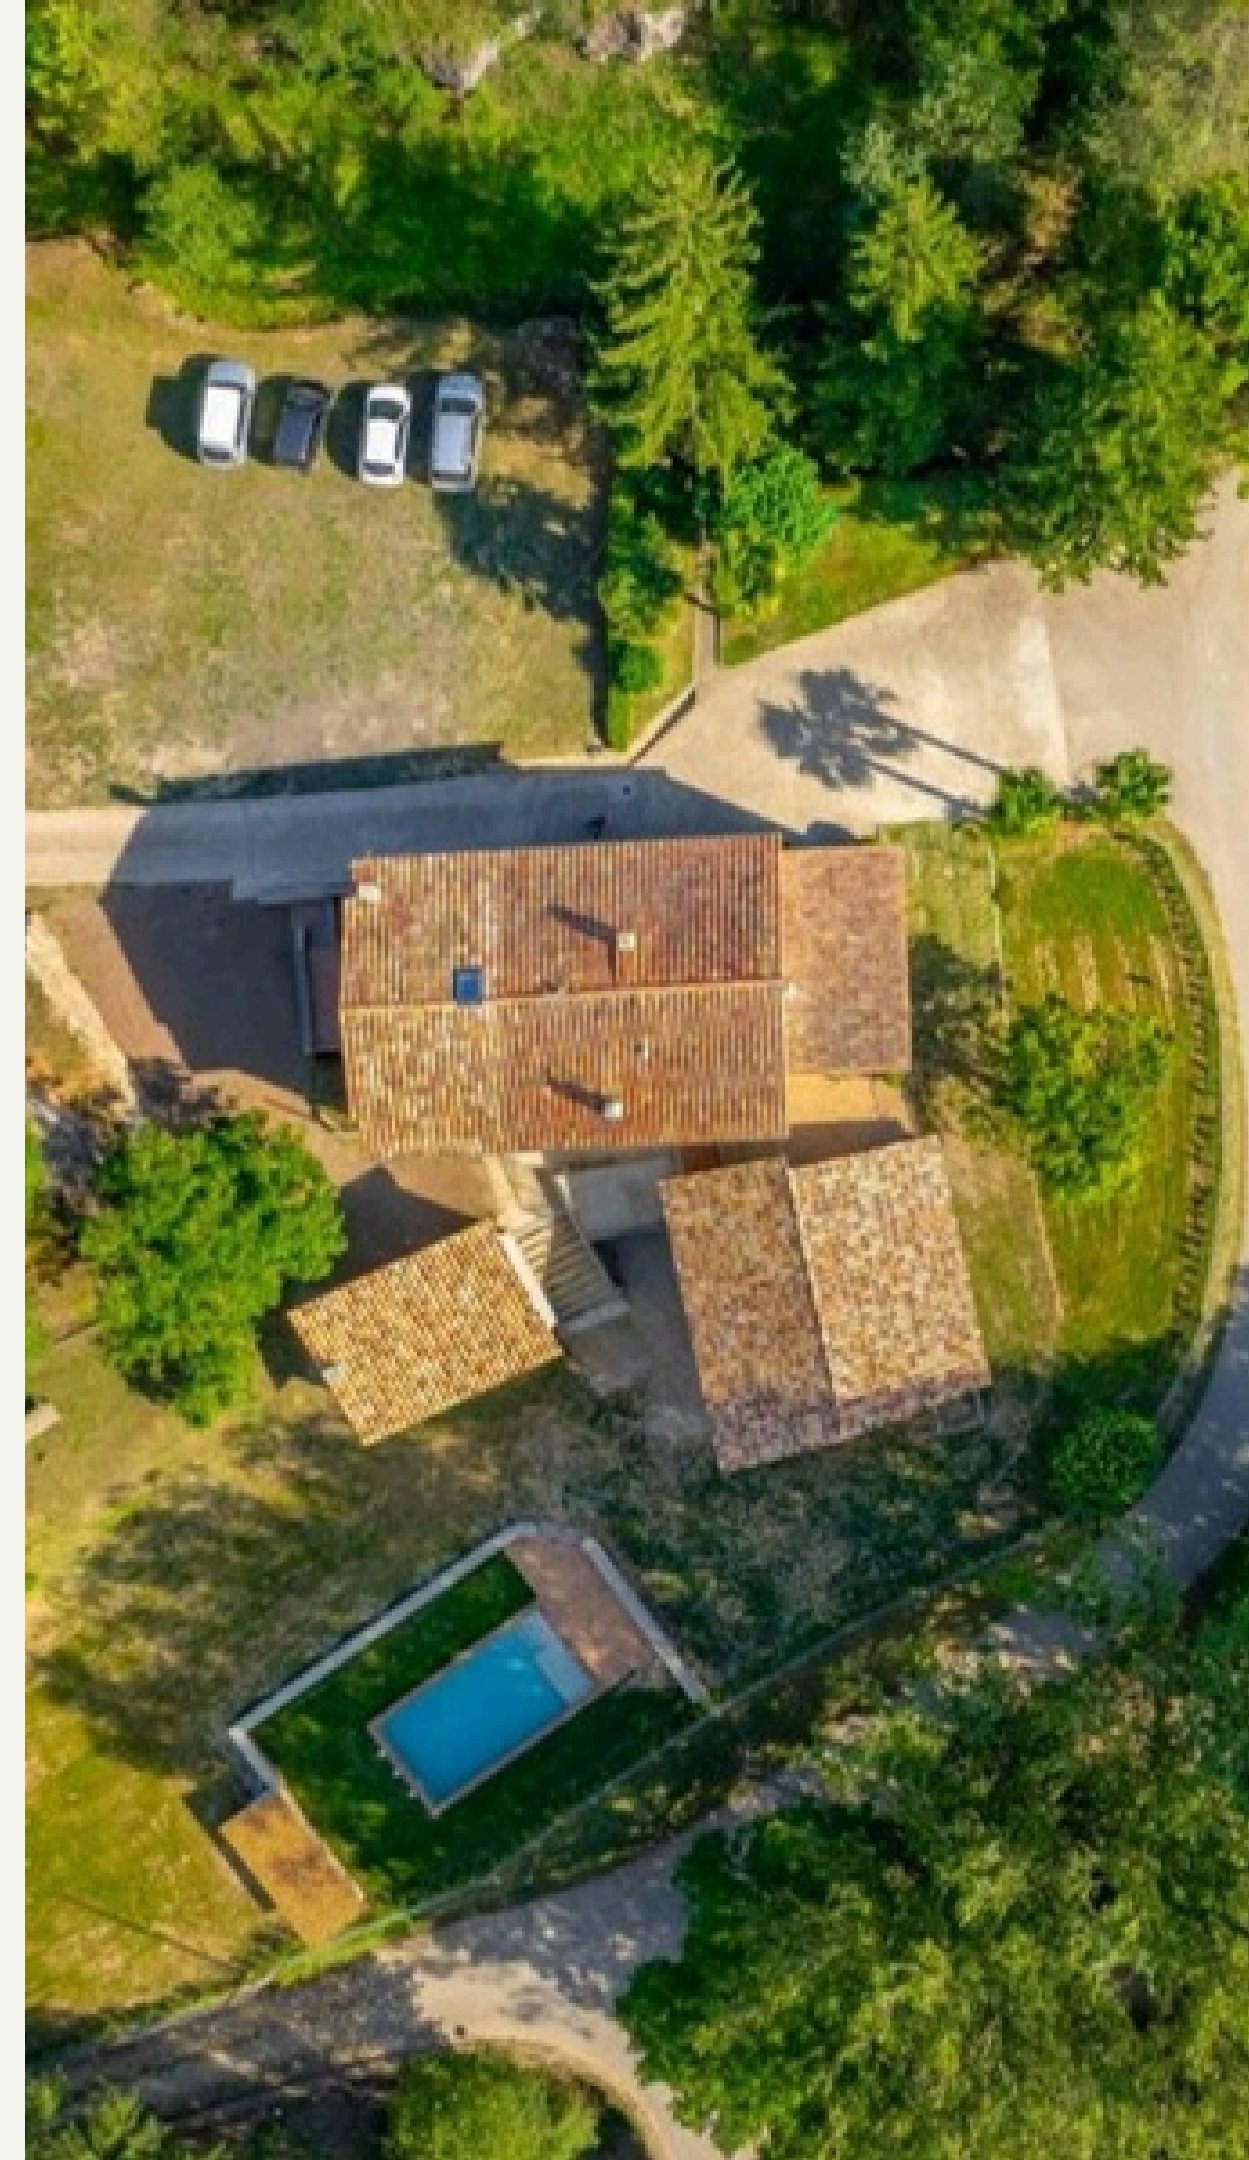

We can also help coordinate a private transfer from Barcelona to the retreat house if all participants are interested, as an additional service. This is completely optional, but it can make the arrival smoother and more comfortable for everyone.

I met Samantha in Barcelona on a retreat with Master Plant and a Mama Ayavaska journey.

A journey that was the most importantly for me and made a profound impact and gave me the guidance that I seek.

Mama Aya have been calling for me for years. And it wasn't until Master Plant passed me by in social media that I felt this is the right time and with right team.

Wow, what a team.. you feel like my family.

After the deep journey, I knew I wanted more help to navigate with everything that has been visible for me through the journey.

The Tarot session with Sam, here amazing wisdom and love to be the pure connection with spirit gave me all that I needed.

All my questions got answered.. 🙏🕊️🦋

I am so thankful and blessed for this reading that already has shown me that everything you said has happened.. even if time doesn't exist ... you gave me the insight and inspiration and courage to keep moving forward with more grounding and understanding.

I am beyond grateful for everything and when I arrived home you also gave me the best energies cleaning and was helping removing the negativity and karmic blocks that was preventing me to be free and receiving abundance.
